October at AAG

Ongoing events at AAG

General Meeting, October 15, 2019
Trevor Swanson

Trevor V. Swanson is one of the most gifted and promising wildlife artists in the world today. Coming from a long line of talented artists, Trevor is a brilliant example of inspired talent passing from one generation to another. Trevor started painting at a very young age and launched his career by the age of 20.

In his presentation and demonstration Trevor will discuss design, style, and inspiration for the piece and materials used in various examples and the hands on demonstrations. He will bring paintings in their various stages to give a good understanding of what his pieces look like through the stages. He welcomes questions and enjoys talking about the process and explaining the why's and what fors during this. He will demonstrate a painting in the drawing stage and do the initial laydown of the foundational layer. This is a good way to showcase brush and material choice at this point.

Arizona Artists Guild

A note from the President, Ivan Halvorson

Once again the harvest moon is shining on the pumpkins and I am reminded of the French painter Jean-François Millet who captured the beauty of peasant farmers at harvest. Educated at the French National School of Fine Arts he showed us that the most humble people are great material for the artist. He made the mundane exciting.

Here in Arizona we are truly blessed with inspiring locations. For example the McCormick-Stillman Railroad Park on Scottsdale Road. There you can paint, draw or sculpt beautiful families playing under the trees, riding the swings, and dancing on the merry-go-round. Of course I must tell you they sell ice cream. It doesn't get any better than this. And this is just one of many outstanding Arizona places where you can produce great art.

Remember you can bring your art work to AAG for critique on the third Tuesday of every month. Plus every Monday morning from 9 to noon, and Wednesday evening from 5-7pm, there is open studio. Here you can do your art work and share your experiences with other AAG artists.

Staying on the theme of autumn, Frederick Remington was born in the creative, magical month of October 1861. With no electricity or modern conveniences he produced cowboy sculptures that are cherished around the world. Remington is a true classic American success story - from humble beginnings he became world famous by hard work and dedication to his craft.

Just think what we can accomplish today with electric lights, library books, Google and access to high quality art supplies. All things come to those who persist so you may be the next Remington, Millet, Vermeer, Warhol or Picasso. That is where the AAG comes in. AAG exists to help you become the best artist you can be.

Well let's get down to what is happening at the AAG. This month, on October 18, 10am to 4pm, Ann Osgood is giving a workshop on painting BIG flowers with gold and silver leaf backgrounds. Expand your horizons with this exciting workshop. Think of Ann Osgood as your creative liberator. Loosen up and start swinging your brush like a master.

Then on December 6, 2019 from 10 AM to 4 PM Trevor Swanson will conduct a workshop on wildlife painting. Trevor will provide an overview of the design and painting process used to create a finished work. Check out the AAG website for details.

Then on December 13 we have the most exciting event of the year, the Artstravaganza. There will be a full blown glass blowing studio where you can make your own glass art piece. Plus David Bradley will have his pottery kiln lighting up the night sky. It is a night to have fun, learn a lot, and take home your masterpieces.

If you have any questions or enquiries direct them to me at info@arizonaartistsguild.net. And don't forget to check out the AAG website arizonaartistsguild.net. There is a wealth of information plus several past newsletters to guide you.

In closing, be sure you are at the general meeting October 15, at 5PM. We will preview future workshops and the most exciting event of the year the Artstravaganza. Also wildlife artist Trevor Swanson will do a free demo. That's right, a free wildlife painting demo. His wildlife paintings are legendary and he is more than capable and willing to share his secrets.

I hope to see you on October 15, 2019 at AAG.

Ivan Halvorson

Sculptor's Group Meeting

Joan Waters - Discussion and presentation of her work and artistic process and Interactive Project.

Monday, October 7, 2019 | 7-9pm

Location: 2141 E. Cedar Street, #1, Tempe, AZ 85281 (near the intersection of the 101 and 202 in Tempe.)

Please wear closed toe shoes.

This evening we'll explore some of Water's newest work which incorporates welded steel, glazed ceramics and reclaimed wood. We'll discuss the creative process, beginning with drawing and observing forms in nature, and embracing the unknown and uncertainty as vital parts of the work. With a background in painting and drawing, Waters sees working across different mediums as another way to work with color, line, texture and positive and negative shapes. Demonstration will include some metal processes, such as coloring steel with patinas and the torch, and discuss some of the unique challenges of combining different materials in these constructions. Bring your questions!

If we have time, we will do a 15-minute hands-on exercise where everyone can combine found objects into their own assemblage which they can photograph.

AAG's Community Outreach Art Programs

Since its inception in 1928, Arizona Artists Guild has promoted the arts through education, exhibition and outreach.

Community outreach is the cornerstone of the Arizona Artists Guild's activities and is the main focus of our organization. We recognize the impact that art has on people's lives and its potential for facilitating healing which is immeasurable. AAG recognizes the value of the arts in how it enriches lives. Guild members and Outreach Program participants alike relate stories about how their lives were changed through their own exposure to Fine Art, be it at an early age or later in life when they could pursue a life long urge that had been repressed due to family and career obligations.

AAG provides free monthly art classes to underserved segments of our community who find an improved quality of life through making art.

Veterans Art Classes: AAG provides free art instruction for Veterans of US military service and are supported in part by the Arizona Art Alliance which receives support from the Arizona Department of Veteran Services.

Veterans Art Classes meets on the fourth Saturday of the month from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Contact David Bradley davlbradly@gmail.com to register or volunteer.

Women's Veterans Art Classes meet on the third Monday of each month from 5:00 - 8:30 pm. Contact Tess Mosko Scherer admin@arizonaartistsguild.net to register or volunteer

Survivors of Suicide Art Class:

This program is designed specifically for friends and families who have lost a loved one to suicide as well as those who have attempted suicide and survived. This project is supported in partnership and funding from Your Art Your Story. Register online at ArizonaArtistsGuild.net or Contact Tess Mosko Scherer admin@arizonaartistsguild.net to register or volunteer

The Mosaics: AAG offers monthly art classes to Native American Elders and Non-English Speaking Adult Refugees who are isolated due to age and language. They face the challenges associated with creating new friends and building community. Art becomes the common language and is often the only language spoken. Contact Karen Weingartner for additional information and to volunteer: kareninsun@gmail.com.

Please Help Support AAG's Outreach Art Programs with your time or resources.

AAG Critique Groups

The AAG Critique groups are small groups of members who meet monthly for a group critique.

Open to AAG members, each group consists of about 10 people. Once the maximum is reached, the group is closed and a list of interested members is started for forming a new group.

If you are interested in participating in a critique group, email: info@arizonaartistsguild.net.

ART SUPPLY EXCHANGE SALE

Arizona Art Alliance Update:

The merger between the AZ Art Alliance and the Phoenix Center has come to an end. With that said, the AZ Art Alliance is still going strong and will continue to provide services to member leagues throughout Arizona.

Check out the AAA website for the current newsletter. Highlights of it include the ongoing "Heat is On" online show with fabulous art (as usual!) and the upcoming show at the Holland Gallery - "Partnership" - from September 28 through October 24. The Artists Reception will be on October 14, 4:30-6:30.

Meet the Art Organizations who call our beautiful building home for their meetings and workshops. Be sure to check out their websites for information on upcoming events.

Arizona Plein Air Painters is a statewide fellowship of artists which provides the opportunity for artists of all skill levels to practice, in community, the time-honored tradition of painting outdoors. We encourage member and non-member artists to enjoy, document and share the beauty and resources of the diverse Arizona landscape through art while expanding and exploring their own artistic growth. <https://arizonapleinair.com>.
